Barnstone Art for Kids Power of Art and Emerging Voices programs are a creative full-year curriculum that encourages the development of healthy life skills. Each child participates in 28 sessions of fun, interactive activities while spending 45 hours with a trained volunteer mentor in a small group setting. The mentor/child relationship provides a safe and supportive environment for the development of communication and social skills, adaptive problem solving, self-awareness and confidence, and healthy self-care through creative expression.

The program is offered at no cost to eligible participants.
